We live in times when many Americans feel uncertain about the future. We worry about jobs, the economy, and whether the country is on the right path. Strength for Your Future is a reminder that, despite the confusion of our times, there are solid, unshakable principles on which this country—and our futures—can rest. We need to remind ourselves of these principles so we can use them as a compass for our nation and our own lives. Bestselling authors of The Book of Virtues, Bill Bennett and John Cribb believe each generation has the responsibility to explain these vital principles to the next generation to help them understand where the strength of America lies. That conversation will help ensure a promising future for all.

Strength for Your Future is the perfect gift to remind us where our true strength rests.

Our futures can be bright.
