Bertrand Cantat Nous les écorchés (French Edition) Faustine Sappa

Après presque dix ans d'absence sur la scène musicale française, Bertrand Cantat, l'ex-leader de Noir Désir, a fait son grand retour en 2013 avec le projet Détroit, duo qu'il forme avec le bassiste Pascal Humbert. En 2014, la tournée qui a suivi la sortie de l'album Horizons a remporté un vif succès en rassemblant plus de 300 000 personnes. Elle-même fan, la journaliste Faustine Sappa est allée à la rencontre de ce public pour réaliser un portrait croisé de l'artiste et de ses fidèles. Alors même qu'il a toujours rejeté l'idée d'être une idole, Bertrand Cantat est devenu pour beaucoup un mythe vivant, entraînant avec lui une foule d'individus, d'« écorchés », qui se reconnaissent dans ses blessures et peut-être plus encore dans sa capacité apparente à les dépasser. Illustré de nombreux témoignages de fans, cet ouvrage propose un double regard sur ce phénomène, l'auteur se positionnant à la fois comme partie prenante et observatrice, pour un portrait sans complaisance mais toujours empli de tendresse.
