Ministry on Fire: Fanning the Flame of Your Congregation B. Bruce Humphrey

Using examples from his personal ministry, Humphrey shows how to use flames of momentum without getting burned or burned out. He uses images of a wood-burning stove and principles of momentum gleaned from scriptural examples to help church leaders overcome problems of inertia and move the church forward into a pattern of growth and celebration. Humphrey incorporates his more than twenty years of experience in congregational growth-both spiritual and numerical-as inspiration, guidance, and project ideas for sparking new flames, nurturing the fire, and banking the coals.
