The House of Pride, and Other Tales of Hawaii Jack London

Originally published in 1912, this early work by American author and social activist Jack London is both expensive and hard to find in its first edition. It contains a collection of beautifully written short stories and is a highly recommended addition to the bookshelf of any fans of fiction. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions, using the original text and artwork.
