Saint Anselm: His Orgins and Influence (Texts and Studies in Religion, V. 91)

This book is the contributions that were presented at St. Anselm College, New Hampshire, the first being by one of the leading authorities in the world of modern Anselmian studies, G.R. Evans of Cambridge University. Her essay "Anselm and Keeping Order in the Real World" was a very appropriate choice for the original conference's keynote address. By studying the importa theme of "order", she develops a concept which perhaps more than any other serves to connect the two sides of Anselm's personality. The other essays in the volume are divided in two categories:
