The Divine Nature of Plants: Wisdom of the Earth Keepers Laura Aversano

Laura Aversano is a plant empath who communicates with plant spirits who tell her how the plant is best used to heal. The book includes 32 garden herbs, together with directions on how to use them for healing, including how to create and use plant spirit essences. Scattered throughout the book are communications from Native American ancestor spirits concerning ancient healing practices that still work today. The book features a full-color section of gorgeous close-up photographs of the selected plants.
